ARTICLE TOOLS

Loraine H. Seim, 82, of Grand Island died Sunday, July 31, 2005, at Beverly Healthcare At Lakeview. Services will be at 11 a.m. Thursday at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Grand Island. The Rev. Randy Fett will officiate. Burial will be in Westlawn Cemetery. Visitation with family greeting friends will be from 3 to 8 p.m. Wednesday at the All Faiths Funeral Home in Grand Island.

Mrs. Seim was born Feb. 19, 1923, at Palmer to Gerhardt and Wilhelmina (Luebke) Renken. Survivors of the immediate family include her husband, Harold; sons and daughters-in-law, Michael and Jane Seim of Grand Island, Tom and Kathy Seim of Stone Mountain, Ga., John and Kathy Seim of York, and Ronald Seim of Minden; brothers and sisters-in-law, Ronald and Lois Renken of Odessa, Wash., and Elton and Ellen Renken of Oroville, Wash.; and sister and brother-in-law, Bernice and Dan Porter of Yelm, Wash. Those also left to cherish her memory are 10 grandchildren, seven great-grand children and close cousins Alice and Jim Tallariti.

Mrs. Seim attended schools in central Nebraska and graduated from Palmer

High School in 1940. She was united in marriage to Harold Seim on Jan. 26, 1943, in Tacoma, Wash. They lived in Washington, Texas, Oklahoma and North Carolina while Harold served in the United States Army. In 1946, they moved to Grand Island where Loraine worked as a cook at Trinity Lutheran School and was a homemaker and a mother. She was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, serving as a Stephen's Minister, was a member of the Liederkarnez, and was active with the Association of Retarded Citizens. Loraine loved her Christian faith. Her parents; brother, Victor; and sister, Norma Jean Scheer preceded her in death.

Memorials are suggested to Mosaic or to St. Paul's Lutheran Church.
