

Today's Obituaries

Hulda Suck

---

Last modified at 6:48 a.m. on Wednesday, December 8, 1999

---

Hulda Suck

CENTRAL CITY -- Hulda Selma Suck, 85, of Central City, formerly of Archer, died Monday, Dec. 6, 1999, at Litzenberg Long-Term Care in Central City.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Friday at Zion United Methodist Church near Archer. The Rev. Henrietta Stenly will officiate. Burial will be in the Archer Evangelical Community Cemetery. Visitation will be from 4 to 7 p.m. Thursday at Solt Funeral Home in Central City. Memorials are suggested to the church or family.

Mrs. Suck was born on March 12, 1914, near Chapman to Wilhelm and Johanna (Seim) Bruns. She attended District 44 School and Zion Lutheran School at Worms. After her education, she worked for Dr. J.R. Racines as a midwife and would often stay to care for mothers, babies and other children. She married Elmer William Suck on March 30, 1938, near Palmer. As her parents' health failed, she cared for them for many years. The couple farmed near Archer, living there until they moved to Central City in 1993. Mr. Suck died in April 1994. Mrs. Suck moved to Litzenberg Long-Term Care in Central City in 1997.

She was a member of Zion United Methodist Church for 58 years, United Methodist Women and a longtime member of Ideal Extension Club. She taught the Loyal Workers Sunday school class for 30 years.

She enjoyed raising chickens, crocheting, sewing and gardening. She shared her produce with many people and was happiest when doing something for others.

Survivors include two daughters, Merleen (Mrs. Dean) Paulsen of Palmer and LaVerna (Mrs. Leonard) DaMoude of Hordville; six grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; two brothers, Gerhard Bruns of Central City and Harvey Bruns of Archer; and two sisters, Elsie Weller of Central City and Ella Hursh of Wheatridge, Colo.

In addition to her husband, she was preceded in death by three brothers, William Jr., Albert and Edward Bruns; and one sister, Helen Bader.